Why visit Stratford-upon-Avon?

- ♣ Stratford-upon-Avon has been a market town since before Shakespeare's day. It was a small river crossing until it received its town charter in 1196. The original crossing was close to the site of Clopton Bridge, one of the oldest bridges in the country still bearing traffic today after 500 years - which speaks of the skill of the original builders, when the heaviest traffic would have been laden carts crossing the river to come to the market.
- ♦ Today there still is a thriving market, held on Fridays and Saturdays, but the town is also host to many other continental and craft markets throughout the year.
- ♥ Stratford-upon-Avon is home to the Royal Shakespeare Company, one of the most prestigious ensemble acting companies in the world. The theatre provides a showcase for Shakespeare's plays but has a much broader repertoire, performing works from across the centuries and many contemporary pieces as well.
- ♠ If you are lucky, you will see many a famous face wandering through the town or enjoying a post theatre drink in one of our many hostelries.
- ♣ You could enjoy a boat trip on the river or a visit to the Butterfly Farm, one of the largest of its kind in Europe, which has collections of many extraordinary insects.
- ♦ The town boasts many coffee shops and tea rooms as well as the aforementioned hostelries. There are some top class fashion shops as well.
- ♥ The centre of the town has many small unusual shops and galleries. There is much to enjoy in this much loved town – enough to bring you back again and again.
